ICD-10-CM Coding Summary

This resource contains information regarding ICD-10-CM diagnosis codes that commonly support the medical necessity of certain specimen collection techniques that may be performed in-office. These techniques are categorized below by the relevant CPT® code. The information in this document presents common ICD-10-CM codes to consider for the relevant CPT® code. The information is provided only if the treating physician determines that it accurately represents the patient's signs and symptoms, and a CPT® code should be used only if the treating physician determines that it accurately represents the pathology managed. Additionally, medical necessity requirements vary by payer, and an ICD-10-CM code may not support use of a certain CPT® code for all payers. BakoDx does not claim that the information shared here is all-inclusive or recognized by all third-party payers.

A hyphen (-) at the end of an ICD-10-CM code stem indicates additional characters are required to complete the diagnosis code.

Tangential Biopsy, Punch Biopsy, Incisional Biopsy, Shave Excision

CPT® 1102 Tangential biopsy of skin (eg, shave, scoop, saucerize, curette, single lesion)

CPT® 1104 Punch biopsy of skin (including simple closure when performed), single lesion

CPT® 1106 Incisional biopsy of skin (eg, wedge), (including simple closure when performed), single lesion

CPT® 1130X Shaving of epidermal or dermal lesion, single lesion

ICD-10-CM codes to consider for tangential, punch, incisional biopsies and shave excision:

- D49.2 Neoplasm of unspecified behavior of bone, soft tissue, and skin
- D23.7 Other benign neoplasm of skin of lower limb, including hip (need laterality)
- D04.7 Carcinoma in situ of skin of lower limb, including hip (need laterality)
- D22.7 Melanocytic nevi of lower limb, including hip (need laterality)
- D48. Neoplasm of uncertain behavior of other and unspecified sites
- L98.8 Other specified disorders of the skin and subcutaneous tissue
- L92. Pyogenic granuloma
- L99. Granulomatous disorders of skin and subcutaneous tissue

ENFD Punch Biopsy

CPT® 11104 Punch biopsy of skin (including simple closure when performed), single lesion

ICD-10-CM codes to consider when utilizing punch biopsy for epidermal nerve fiber density (ENFD):

- G60. Hereditary and idiopathic neuropathy
- G62. Other and unspecified polyneuropathies
- G63. Polyneuropathy in diseases classified elsewhere
- G64. Other disorders of peripheral nervous system
- E10.4 Type 1 diabetes mellitus with neurological complications
- E11.4 Type 2 diabetes mellitus with neurological complications
- E13.4 Other specified diabetes mellitus with neurological complications

Nail Unit Biopsy

CPT® 11755 Biopsy of nail unit (eg, plate, bed, matrix, hyponychium, proximal and lateral nail folds)

ICD-10-CM codes to consider for nail unit biopsy:

- D49.2 Neoplasm of unspecified behavior of bone, soft tissue, and skin
- D48. Neoplasm of uncertain behavior of other and unspecified sites
- D23.7 Other benign neoplasm of skin of lower limb, including hip
- D22.7 Melanocytic nevi of lower limb, including hip (need laterality)
- L60.3 Onychodystrophy
- L98.8 Other specified disorders of the skin and subcutaneous tissue

DEAR COLLEAGUE

It is my pleasure to invite you to attend the Wisconsin Foot & Ankle Conference on May 2-4, 2024 at the Brookfield Conference Center in Brookfield, Wisconsin where you can earn 25 CECH.

Our three-day conference will cover the entire spectrum of foot and ankle care in sessions aimed at emerging trends in foot and ankle surgery, practice management, sports medicine, diabetic and wound care, the latest in reconstructive foot and ankle surgery.

The conference will also include a comprehensive lecture series on surgical and office-based billing and compliance that you don't want to miss.

Wisconsin Podiatric Medical Association's annual business meeting will be held on Thursday from 6:00-6:30 PM where members will receive an update on the association's activities. On Friday evening you are invited to attend a Kentucky Derby themed reception and enjoy cocktails and appetizers while reconnecting with your colleagues and networking with industry members.

You'll also be able to visit our exhibit hall to explore and learn about new innovations, products, and services that you do not want to miss from top industry members. For every booth that you visit, you will receive a ticket to enter your name into drawings for a variety of excellent prizes. We are grateful for the support our industry partners provide us and the vital role that they play in our community.

You can register online at www.wisconsinpodiatrists.com/register. Should you have any questions, please contact us at 608.844.8538 or info@wisconsinpodiatrists.com. We hope to see you in May!

All my best,

Jonathan Thompson, DPM, FACFAS

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon the conclusion of the Wisconsin Foot & Ankle Conference, podiatric physicians will be able to:

- Display a reasonable understanding of emerging surgical trends in foot and ankle surgery.
- Identify complex complications in forefoot surgery and better implement an effective treatment plan.
- Be knowledgeably informed about recent evidence-based research in sports medicine.
- Describe updates in coding and compliance practices and better implement them in podiatric practice management.
- Exhibit a greater understanding of complex pathology in reconstructive rearfoot and ankle surgery.
- Recognize the latest wound care advancements in the management of the diabetic patient population.

COCKTAILS AND APPETIZERS WILL BE SERVED

The Wisconsin Podiatric Medical Association Political Action Committee (WPMA-PAC) is a non-profit, bipartisan fundraising committee through which podiatrists support state candidates who champion podiatric medicine's issues before the Wisconsin General Assembly.

WPMA-PAC enables podiatric physicians to be effectively involved where public policy decisions are made that impact how healthcare is administered and regulated in Wisconsin. By combining resources through contributions to the WPMA-PAC, podiatric physicians gain a stronger voice for the profession, their practices, and the patients they serve.

When you consider the importance of legislation in creating the laws and regulations that govern nearly every aspect of our healthcare system, the importance of supporting those who advocate for podiatric physicians and their patients is clear. Help make sure the voice of podiatric medicine is heard when and where it counts!

PASSION LEAD US HERE

The APMA Political Action Committee (APMAPAC) is a nonprofit, bipartisan fundraising committee through which podiatrists support federal candidates who champion podiatric medicine's issues before the US Congress.

Because of the efforts of the APMAPAC and its parent organization, the American Podiatric Medical Association (APMA), the profession has gained a national presence as a political force in Washington, DC.

APMAPAC's role is to support candidates seeking Congressional office in the US House and Senate. The only other legal means for such support is through contributions made directly to a candidate by an individual.
